

Black Cat Day History

National Black Cat Day seeks to raise awareness about the sleek and slender cat. This day aims to dispel myths and promote adopting those black cats without a home.

National Black Cat Day was created in 2011 by the feline welfare charity, Cats Protection. National Black Cat Day is observed annually on October 27th.

Black Cat Day Facts

- According to Cats Protection, they are able to help around 200,000 cats and kittens every year by providing shelter and finding them homes.
